

AGENDA FOR THE WORKSHOP ON PROFESSIONALISM AND ETHICS

DATE: 10 January 2014

TIMING: 1000-1615

VENUE: ITC Sonar Hotel, JBS Haldane Avenue (Opp. Science City),
Kolkata, West Bengal, 700 046, India. Tel: (91) (33) 23454545

NOTES:

1. The workshop is only the start of a process, and even if you are not able to attend you can (and I hope will) contribute before and after.
2. Please (re) confirm your attendance on 10 Jan 2014 even if you said so before.
3. Do read up the pre-workshop publication, add to the discussion before-hand, and contribute further reading material.
4. Offer support and challenge in discussions - remember the aim is to move forward.
5. Active engagement of all participants is required.
6. The workshop will consist of a series of interactive sessions with panels and Q & A.
7. There will be no speeches- only short comments, no PowerPoint allowed.
8. We will keep to time – and prove that change can happen!
9. Attendees need to make their own way to the workshop – thank you. For any rooms for overnight stay booking please contact: Ms. Suchorita (Tel: 0091-9830055787 and quote : GAPIO Conference (AGHL)
10. Enjoy.

(Please see page below for a breakdown of events)

SESSION	TIME	OBJECTIVE
Scene setting	10-1015	Welcome, background and purpose
Session one: Taking stock in India	1015-1130	To understand the current situation about health developments and the state of professionalism and ethics in India
Session Two: Experiences of Indian doctors worldwide	1135-1300	To learn about the experiences of Indian doctors from across the globe
Lunch and Networking	1300-1400
Session Three: The Global Indian Doctor	1400-1500	To explore the qualities of the Global Indian Doctor: what should be the equivalent of the Hippocratic Oath, the values/behaviours of Indian doctors
Session Four: Making it happen	1500-1600	To discuss next steps- what should be the practical programme of work: -Lobbying -Leadership development -Technical support around education about medical ethics/communication skills And also how to evaluate this work
Closing Remarks	1600-1610
Tea and Networking	1610 onwards

ADDITIONAL: Following the workshop at 1700 (till 1830), there will be a talk by Dr Mukesh Kapila: the author of “Against a tide of evil” – further details will be published later, but do note the time.

Please note that the planned lecture by Dr Mukesh Kapila has been cancelled due to unavoidable reasons. Any inconvenience is regretted.

More info will keep appearing on www.leadershipforhealth.com

Enquiries to rajan.madhok@btinternet.com